DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to at least the following patentably distinct species, sub-species, and sub-sub-species:

Species I, drawn to a touch screen comprising an emissive programmable display

(see Page 6, Line 21 of the instant specification, for instance); and Species II, drawn to a touch screen comprising a reflective programmable display (see

species are further directed to at least the following patentably distinct sub-species:

Sub-Species A, drawn to a touch screen having a coversheet comprising a flexible polymer substrate (see Page 11, Lines 16-20 of the instant specification, for instance); and

Sub-Species B, drawn to a touch screen having a coversheet comprising a flexible glass substrate (see Page 11, Lines 13-16 of the instant specification, for instance); wherein both sub-species are further directed to at least the following patentably distinct sub-sub-species:

Sub-Sub-Species 1, drawn to a touch screen having first and second conductive regions comprising a fully opaque material (see Page 4, Lines 13-14 of the instant specification, for instance); and

Sub-Sub-Species 2, drawn to a touch screen having first and second conductive regions comprising a relatively opaque conductive polymer (see Page 4, Lines 11-13 of the instant specification, for instance).

The species, sub-species, and sub-sub-species are independent or distinct because the species, sub-species, and sub-sub-species do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; the species, sub-species, and sub-sub-species are not obvious variants; and the species, sub-species, and sub-sub-species each have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, and effect.

Applicants are required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, sub-species, and sub-sub-species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1-4, 6, 14, 19, 20, 23, and 24 appear to be generic.

Applicants are advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species, sub-species, and sub-sub-species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicants will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species, sub-species, and sub-sub-species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicants must indicate which are readable upon the elected species, sub-species, and sub-sub-species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. A telephone call was made to Marguerite E. Gerstner (Registration Number 32,695) on 28 March 2007 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicants are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species, sub-species, and sub-sub-species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species, sub-species, and sub-sub-species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicants traverse on the ground that the inventions or species, sub-species, and sub-sub-species are not patentably distinct, applicants should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species, sub-species, and sub-sub-species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
